

It Fell From Space SW B Unit 1

"Pick up sticks and twigs in back," Dad told Mick and Rick, his twins. "This job will not last long."

So Mick and Rick ran to chat with Tim and Jill. Will Tim and Jill help Mick and Rick?

"I can help pick up sticks and twigs," Tim told Mick and Rick.

"I can help pick up sticks and twigs," Jill told Mick and Rick. "And I will bring Bill and Ling to help us."

"Thanks," said Mick and Rick. "This help will surprise Dad."

The six friends went up the hill in back. "Look, Mick," said Rick. "A big rock is in this pit. I think it fell from space."

Bill felt afraid. "Can rocks drop from space?"

"Do not worry," Mick told him. Mick held it up. It had a black crust. It was as big as his fist.

"If this is just a rock, it is a chunk off a big, BIG rock," Rick told Mick.

Mick and Rick ran back to Dad with the odd rock.

Tim, Jill, Ling, and Bill ran with them.

"Dad, come quick! What is this?" Mick and Rick ask Dad.

Plunk! Mick and Rick set the rock down. 197

"I can tell that this odd rock is a space rock," 208

Dad told Mick and Rick. "You did not pick up 218 sticks. You did not pick up twigs. But you did get 229

a space rock!" 232

"We can get rocks too!" Bill said. And Tim, 241

Jill, Ling, and Bill ran up the hill in back. 251

"There goes our help!" said Rick with a wink. 260
