

Name _____

Read the story. Answer the questions.

Many people like games. There are games that use pictures. There are space games. There are games that tell you what to do and how to win. Some games make you go back and do the steps again. Some games have you hiking over the hills. Some have you biking around a track. We can find many games that people like.

1. Which word tells what many people like?

space                      games

2. Which word tells what games can use?

lines                      pictures

3. Write the sentence that tells the main idea.

---

---

---

4. What do some games make you do?

- run
 hike
 eat

5. What do you have to do in some games?

- do the steps again
 ride in trucks
 hop up and down

Home Activity This page works with the main idea and supporting details in a story. Tell a story about toys your child likes to play with. Have your child identify the main idea and details in this story.